

PERFORMING ARTS - DANCE

Student Achievement 2016

Pass rate: 100% • D*-D Grades: 100%

This two year, A level equivalent modular course is taught through a combination of practical and written assignments. You will study four units including three core topics: investigating practitioner's work, developing skills and techniques for live performance and group performance workshop, where you will devise your own choreographic material for performances and study the work of professional practitioners. The course is aimed at those students who are enthusiastic about practical dance and wish to develop their technical and creative skills, creating choreography in groups and individually. The course provides you with the opportunity to study a range of different dance styles including physical theatre, contemporary dance and international style dances. Throughout the course you will participate in a range of performances to help you broaden your understanding of the world of dance and prepare you for full time training.

This course cannot be combined with the BTEC Level 3 National Extended Certificate in Performing Arts (Acting).

Level: Level 3

Specific Course Entry Requirements:

What is the department like?

The new Performing Arts building is a very vibrant, open and welcoming place to work and study. You will be surrounded by like-minded individuals and encouraged to make as much use of our Dance Studio, apple mac suites, generous rehearsal spaces, recording studio and newly refurbished Theatre. The communal area in the core of the building is a great place for social engagements as well as a place to catch up on work within your performance arts subjects. There is always something going on, be it our weekly lunchtime performance or extra theory workshops; you will be welcomed into our community of dancers, actors, musicians and music technicians.

Enrichment opportunities

There are many enrichment opportunities in the Performing Arts department, these include workshops with Professional Actors, Dancers and Theatre Directors, Musical Theatre productions, Dance productions, Plays and any more. We also run an annual overnight trip to London to see performances in the West End.
