

ELECTIVES

TEACHERS OF TOMORROW

The Teachers of Tomorrow programme is aimed at students who have a real interest in teaching as a career. Students will embark on an exciting programme designed to provide them with a variety of skills beneficial to pursuing a career in education. The programme will also enable students to enjoy real hands-on experience of working in a school from a teacher's perspective. It is an opportunity to study elements of teaching and is an excellent way to enhance extra-curricular skills such as peer mentoring and coaching.

Who should follow the Teachers of Tomorrow Programme?

To access this elective, you will need to demonstrate a serious interest in teaching as a future career. The programme can be combined with any subject.

What activities can you expect to experience?

- Weekly placement at a school
- Workshops on teaching and learning delivered by Edge Hill
- Workshops on managing behaviour
- Workshops on creating innovative, interesting lessons
- Visit to Edge Hill University
- Workshops on writing personal statements and interview techniques

You will develop the following employability skills:

- Teaching experience
- Communication
- Perseverance
- Team work
- Report writing
- Independent working

What about Trips and Visits

Scheduled trips for 2016-17:

Weekly placement at a local school

Visit to Edge Hill for workshops on writing a personal statement and interview techniques for a place on a teaching degree

What will this elective lead to after SJR?

All of the skills and knowledge gained from the programme will support students in their application to study a Teaching degree course at university. The elective is designed to support students in gaining the work experience they need to apply, as well as the skills they will need to perform at interview and gain an offer of a place on their chosen course.

St John Rigby College

01942 214797 enquiries@sjr.ac.uk www.sjr.ac.uk

Find us on Facebook and Twitter

LOTTERY FUNDED

leapdesign*

Design by leapdesign.co.uk

St John Rigby College reserves the right to make changes including courses offered, course content and entry requirements at any time.

