A report on health and safety will be presented to the Governing Body, termly through the Principal's Report.

A Health and Safety Officer has responsibility for co-ordinating first aid across the College.

8. Monitoring

Measuring Performance

Measuring performance has become a standard mechanism across all our organisation's disciplines as part of the means by which we ensure that we are progressing satisfactorily. Methods for measuring performance vary from judgments borne of informal direct observation to more formal schemes for the analysis of statistical data and report on progress against defined performance indicators.

The responsibility for day-to-day monitoring and measuring lies with line management.

Documented premises inspections will be carried out on a minimum of a termly basis.

The Health and Safety Officer will report to each Health and Safety Committee meeting the accident and near miss reports, First Aid reports and Fire report, identifying any trends as appropriate.

It is important that both active and reactive monitoring techniques are used as a matter of routine to help us gauge how effectively risks are being controlled and how well a positive Health, Safety and Welfare culture is being developed.

Where necessary remedial actions and interventions will be required in order that we may learn from our experience, enhance our systems and procedures, identify training needs and contribute to continuous and progressive improvement in performance.

Auditing and Reviewing Performance

Formal audits that seek to measure performance overall against defined standards will be undertaken periodically. The objective of an audit will be to establish whether our overall health and safety management system is efficient and effective.

The day-to-day reviewing of performance is a routine responsibility of line management. The Health and Safety Committee members maybe requested to carry out health and safety performance reviews.

All members of staff are Fire Wardens and have a responsibility to ensure that the room they are in is evacuated during a fire alarm or drill. For example a teacher is responsible for the students in their classroom.

Fire Marshalls are nominated individuals who are responsible for sweeping a specific area of College during a fire alarm or drill.

Suitably qualified Fire Marshalls and competent people are appointed to take charge in case of an emergency fire evacuation.

Fire Wardens and other competent people will support the evacuation of the building in an emergency situation. Support will also be given to individuals with additional needs and formal personalised plans will be developed.

A fire log book will be maintained for all College buildings and this will include records of inspection of fire exits, fire alarms, emergency lighting and fire extinguishers.
