THE ROLE OF THE GOVERNING BODY

The term 'Governing Body' in this document includes the governing body of a Catholic voluntary aided school, federation or sixth-form college.

The term 'School' in this document includes a Catholic voluntary aided school, federation or sixth-form college.

As a Governing Body, our overarching responsibility lies in ensuring that we comply with our legal and canonical duty to ensure that the Catholic character of the School is preserved and developed and that this duty permeates everything that we do.

We understand that Foundation Governors are required, as the cornerstone of their role, to ensure this objective is achieved. However, all governors have a duty to preserve and develop the Catholic character of the School in order to fulfil the objects set out in its governing documents.

OUR CORE STRATEGIC FUNCTIONS:

Further, in accordance with our legal obligations, we endeavour to operate at a strategic level, leaving the School's senior leadership responsible and accountable for the operational day-to-day running of the School. It is by achieving these aims that we can be sure that our School has effective governance. Our core strategic functions, as a Governing Body, therefore, are in:

1. Ensuring clarity of Catholic mission, ethos and strategic direction;
2. Holding the appropriate senior leadership to account for the educational performance and Catholic character of the School and its pupils; and for the internal organisation, management and control of the School including performance management of staff;
3. Overseeing the financial performance of the School and making sure its money is well spent; and
4. Ensuring the voices of stakeholders are heard.

We understand that the Catholic Church expects Catholic schools to promote and uphold high standards, including academic standards as an integral part of its educational vision for the holistic formation of children and young people.

We understand that Canon 806§2 requires that Catholic schools are "...at least as academically distinguished as that in the other schools of the area" and that governors should be mindful of this requirement in all that they do.

We adhere to the Church's social teaching which is a rich treasury of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Several of the key themes that are at the heart of Catholic social tradition and which should permeate through our School are 1) life and dignity of the human person 2) call to family, community and participation 3) rights and responsibilities 4) option for the poor and vulnerable 5) the dignity of work and the rights of workers 6) solidarity and 7) care for God's creation¹.

- We will consider carefully how our decisions may affect the community and other schools, colleges and academies.
- We will attend relevant training including diocesan training; governor induction and continuing professional development training, as required by the diocese
- We understand the purpose of the governing body and our role as governors and the role of senior leadership.
- We accept that our role is strategic and so will focus on our core functions rather than involve ourselves in day-to-day management.
- We accept that we have no legal authority to act individually, except when the governing body has given us delegated authority to do so, and therefore we will only speak on behalf of the governing body when we have been specifically authorised to do so.
- We accept collective responsibility for all decisions made by the governing body or its delegated agents. This means that we will not speak against majority decisions outside the governing body meetings.

² This means the Canon law of the Catholic Church from time to time in force, which includes the 1983 Code of Canon Law, and any Particular Law such as legislation of the Bishops' Conference, directives of the diocesan bishop and legislation of the school's religious order (if any).

- We have a duty to act fairly and without prejudice, and in so far as we have responsibility for staff, we will fulfil all that is expected of a good employer.

- We will each involve ourselves actively in the work of the governing body, and accept our fair share of responsibilities, including service on committees or working groups.
- We will make full efforts to attend all meetings and where we cannot attend explain in advance why we are unable to.
- We will arrive at meetings prepared, having read all papers in advance, ready to make a positive contribution and observe protocol.
- We will get to know the School well and positively respond to opportunities to involve ourselves in School activities.
- We will visit the School, with all visits to the School arranged in advance with the staff and undertaken within the framework established by the governing body
- We will evaluate our effectiveness as a governing body by way of completing a skills audit and a self evaluation form on an annual basis
- We will consider seriously our individual and collective needs for continuous training and development as required by the diocesan education service, and commit to undertake any induction training, relevant training along with any mandatory training (such as safeguarding) as may be required by law.
- We accept that in the interests of transparency, our full names, date of appointment, terms of office, roles on the governing body, attendance records, relevant business and pecuniary interests, category of governor and the body responsible for appointing us will be published on our School's website and anything else as required by law.

Relationships

In all our relationships we shall exercise stewardship and draw on the teachings and example of Jesus Christ in that:

- All relationships will be built on the core values of the Gospel based on the Beatitudes summarised as: faithfulness and integrity; dignity and compassion; humility and gentleness; truth and justice; forgiveness and mercy; purity and holiness; tolerance and peace and service and sacrifice³

Confidentiality

- We will observe confidentiality in all circumstances in particular in relation to matters concerning specific members of staff or pupils, both inside and outside the School, unless there is a lawful requirement for disclosure.
- We will exercise the greatest prudence at all times when discussions regarding the business of the School arise outside a governing body meeting.

We accept that the Register of Business Interests will be published on the School's website.

BREACH OF THIS CODE

- If we believe this code has been breached, we will promptly raise this issue with the chair, consult with the diocese, determine the investigatory process (if any); the governing body will only use suspension/removal (which is at the absolute discretion of the Ordinary as a last resort after seeking to resolve any difficulties or disputes in more constructive ways.
- Should it be the chair that we believe has breached this code, another governor, such as the vice chair will investigate.
- We understand that potential or perceived breaches of this code will be taken seriously and that a breach could lead to formal sanctions.

We are also reminded of the declaration signed upon appointment of a Foundation Governor (the basic principles of which are agreed by all of the governing body) which you can find in this Code of Conduct at Appendix I for Foundation Governors in Schools
